8. Upgrade means any correction of Error, new release and modification or additions to the Software.
9. Software means the Product and modules of the COPT and any embedded third party supplier components, such as, mathematical solver that may have a valid license. Unless otherwise specified hereunder, the Software, the Product and documents are referred to collectively as "Software".

II. PARTIES TO THE AGREEMENT

1. This Agreement is an agreement jointly concluded by individual users without enterprise organization status or enterprise organization users (including administrators and end users) of the COPT and the COPT software and service suppliers in Chaoyang District, Beijing, China with respect to the downloading, installation and use of the Software as well as use of relevant services.
2. The aforementioned individual users, enterprise organization users and their administrators and end users of the COPT are collectively referred to as "users" or "you".
3. The COPT software and service suppliers include Cardinal Operations Technology (Beijing) Co. Ltd. and other affiliates involving provision of the optimizer services, including Shanghai Cardinal Operations Network Technology Co., Ltd., Cardinal Operations (Suzhou) Co., Ltd. and Shenzhen Shanzhi Technology Co., Ltd. The above COPT software and service suppliers are collectively referred to as "Cardinal Operations" or "we".

III. ABOUT THE SOFTWARE

1. Acquisition of the Software

You may obtain the Software directly from Cardinal Operations' official website and authorized third party websites, application distribution platforms and other official or authorized channels of Cardinal Operations.

If you obtain the Software or an installation program with the same name as the Software from a third party not authorized by Cardinal Operations, Cardinal Operations will not guarantee the normal use of such software and will not be liable for any losses caused thereby.

2. Installation and Uninstallation of the Software

Cardinal Operations may develop different versions of Software for different terminals, systems, etc. You shall select the appropriate version for installation based on actual situations. After downloading the installation program, you need to follow the steps prompted by the program to complete a correct installation.

If you no longer need to use the Software or need to install a new version of the Software, you can uninstall the Software at your own discretion.

3. Updates of the Software

In order to enhance the user experience and improve the service, Cardinal Operations may continuously strive to develop new services and provide you with software updates from time to time.

In order to improve the user experience, enhance the security of service and ensure the functional consistency, etc., Cardinal Operations reserves the right to update the Software or change a part of function effects of the Software.

After a new version of the Software is released, the old version thereof may not be available. Cardinal Operations does not guarantee the continued availability of the old version, nor does it guarantee that the corresponding customer service and maintenance services will continued to be provided for the old version of the Software, so please always check and obtain the latest version.

4. Versions of the Software

In order to meet the actual needs of users, the Software provided by us includes the trial version and the official version. There is no difference between the two versions in terms of software performance. The two versions differs in the period of license.

IV SERVICE CONTENTS

1. Authorized Use

According to all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Cardinal Operations grants to you a non-transferable, indivisible and non-exclusive license to use the Software in machine-readable form on any target computer and operating system, provided that you must: (a) strictly adhere to the requirements of this Agreement and the Software usage documentation; and (b) strictly abide by any other license terms, ordering terms or other restrictions on user, computer, field of use or other restrictions set forth in the applicable Order or specifically specified at the time of purchase. The scope of license and use right shall be subject to the type of licensed product that you purchased.

2. Restriction on Authorized Use

You shall not (and shall not allow any third party to): (a) decompile, disassemble or reverse engineer the Software in any way, or attempt to reconstruct or discover any source code, underlying ideas, algorithms, file formats or programming interfaces of the Software (except to the extent that applicable laws prohibits or restricts the setting of such reverse engineering restrictions); (b) distribute, sell, sublicense, rent, lease the Software (or any portion thereof), or use it for time sharing, hosting, service provider or similar purpose; (c) attempt to circumvent or disable the security key mechanism that protects the Software against unauthorized use (except to the extent that applicable laws prohibits or restricted such restrictions); (d) duplicate (except as expressly permitted in this Agreement), modify or translate any part of the Software, create a derivative work of any part of the Software, or incorporate or merger the Software into or with other software, except for those expressly authorized in writing by Cardinal Operations. If you duplicate and modify the Product in any way without obtaining specific license from Cardinal Operations, the license to use the Software will be automatically terminated; (e) use the Software in any way that violates any laws, regulations, policies or infringes upon the legal rights and interests of third parties.

3. Reservation of Rights

All other rights not expressly licensed under this clause and other provisions of this Agreement shall be reserved by Cardinal Operations, and your exercise of such rights shall otherwise obtain the written license from Cardinal Operations. The failure of Cardinal Operations to exercise any of the foregoing rights shall not constitute a waiver of such rights.

V. GRANT OF LICENSE

1. Personal License

It is tied to a single personal computer. Only specified user can run COPT locally. No limitations on CPU cores.

2. Server License

It is tied to a single server computer. An arbitrary number of users and programs can run COPT simultaneously. No limitations on CPU cores.

3. Cluster License

It is tied to a server machine running COPT compute cluster service. Any COPT compute cluster client connected to server can offload optimization computations. That is, clients are allowed to do modelling locally, execute optimization jobs remotely, and then obtain results interactively. Although server can have multiple clients connected, each connection must run optimization jobs sequentially. No limitations on CPU cores.

4. Floating License

It is tied to a server machine running COPT floating token service. Any COPT floating client connected to server can borrow and use the floating license, thus run one process for optimization jobs simultaneously.

5. Special License

(1) Trial License

If you would like to try out the Software, you may download the COPT in accordance with this Agreement and submit a trial license application to us. We will grant you a trial license to use the Software for a limited period of time for the software evaluation purpose.

(2) Academic License

If you are a qualified lecturer at an accredited educational institution, or a student enrolled at an accredited educational institution, needing to use the Software in the context of teaching and learning, you may apply to us for a license to use the Software for classroom teaching or academic research purposes (“Academic License”). The Academic License is a non-exclusive and gratuitous software license, which shall be used for educational purpose only and may not be used for commercial, professional or other profit-making purposes. The Academic License remains valid for one (1) year after it is successfully granted, and a new application of license shall be submitted to us upon expiration of the Academic License. The educational institution is allowed to apply for the Academic License on a unified basis so as to make the Software available within the campus network.

VI. USAGE RULES

You undertake not to use the Software to commit any illegal or improper acts, including but not limited to:

(I) Software Usage Rules

You undertake not to commit any of the following acts with respect to the Software:

- 1. Uploading, posting, emailing or otherwise transmitting any materials of software viruses or other computer codes, files or programs that interfere with, damage or restrict the functions of any computer software, hardware or communication devices;
- 2. Adding, deleting or altering the functions or operation effects of the Software, or operating or disseminating to the public the Software and methods used for the above purposes, by modifying or fabricating the instructions and data in the course of running the Software, regardless of whether such actions are taken for commercial purposes or not;
- 3. Logging in or using the Software and relevant services via any third-party software, plug-in, add-on or system that is not developed or authorized by Cardinal Operations, or producing, publishing or disseminating the above tools;
- 4. Interfering with, authorizing others to or using a third party software to interfere with the Software and its components, modules and data.
- 5. Other actions not expressly authorized by Cardinal Operations.

(II) Code of Conduct

- 1. You may make reasonable inquiries to us regarding the downloading, installation, use and uninstallation of the Software, but we shall not be obligated to give answers in excess of our reasonable tolerance limit. If you have any comments or suggestions for improvements, please feel free to contact us.
- 2. You may not modify, copy and disseminate materials related to the Software. If you duplicate, modify and disseminate these materials and thus cause damages to others or our image, you shall assume the corresponding legal liabilities. You shall not remove, obscure or alter our copyright notice, trademarks or other statement of right.

3. You shall warrant that you will not infringe upon the legitimate rights and interests of us and others by taking advantage of the Software. It is prohibited to disrupt the normal use of the Software by means of network vulnerability, malicious software or other illegal means.

4. You undertake and agree to strictly abide by the Network Security Law of the People's Republic of China ("PRC") and other relevant laws and regulations of the PRC as well as the regulations of the country or region where you reside when using the Software. You agree that you will not use the Software to conduct or facilitate any illegal or improper activities, including but not limited to:

(1) use any plug-in, add-on, systems or third party's tools that are not authorized or licensed by us to interfere with, damage, modify or otherwise affect the normal operation of the Software.

(2) take any action that jeopardizes the security of computer network by using or aiming at the Software, including but not limited to:

(a) illegal intrusion of others' network, interference with normal function of others' network, stealing network data and other activities endangering the network security;

(b) providing programs and tools specially used for activities endangering the network security, such as, intrusion of network, interference with the normal function and protective measures of network, stealing network data, etc.;

(c) intentionally providing technical support, advertising promotion, payment settlement and other assistances to a person after being fully aware that such person engages in activities endangering the network security;

(d) using unlicensed data, or having access to unlicensed servers/accounts;

(e) having access to, without permission, the public computer network or others' computer systems to delete, modify and add the stored information;

(f) attempting to detect, scan and test the vulnerabilities of the service system or networks, or taking other actions that undermine the network security, without permission;

(g) attempting to interfere with or undermine the normal operation of the service systems or websites, deliberately spreading malicious programs or viruses, and taking other actions disrupting or undermining the normal network information services;

(h) falsifying the names or part of the names of TCP/IP data package;

(3) reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile or otherwise attempt to discover the source code of the Software.

(4) copy or alter the Product, in whole or in part, or permit the Product or any part thereof to be merged with or incorporated into any other programs.

(5) have access to or attempt to have access to or damage the Product or any part of the related system or network without authorization.

(6) disassemble, decode or reverse develop the Product or any part thereof, or create derivative works based on the Product or any part thereof, or attempt to engage in similar activities prohibited by applicable laws.

(7) submit or otherwise make available the Product (including the subject matter and the source code), in whole or in part, to any person in any form without our prior written consent.

(8) use the Product (or any part thereof) in any unlawful manner or in violation of this Agreement, or commit any fraudulent or other malicious actions, including, without limitation, hacking into or planting malicious code on (including viruses or harmful data) the Product (or the URL of the Product link) or any operating systems.

(9) infringe our or any third party's intellectual property rights when having access to and/or using the Product.

(10) develop, support or use software, devices, scripts or any other methods or processes (including crawler software, browser plug-in or any other technical or human operations) to obtain the Product.

(11) attempt to violate this Agreement (or any part hereof), or encourage or incite such conduct.

VII STATEMENTS OF RIGHTS AND CONFIDENTIALITY

1. The intellectual property rights of our products and all information and content related to the Product (including but not limited to text, video and audio, photographs, icons, applications, designs, software, scripts, programs, copyright, trademarks, trade names, logos and other materials and services, and the appearance and experience thereof) shall be owned by us. Your use of the Product pursuant to this Agreement does not constitute a grant or transfer of any ownership or other rights in the Product or the content therein to you or any other persons.

2. We grant you a revocable, limited, non-exclusive and non-transferable right to use the Software. Your use of the Software shall be limited to the purposes agreed by us.

3. You warrant, represent and undertake to respect our intellectual property rights, and you shall not use our intellectual property rights in any way beyond the scope of this Agreement without our prior written consent. You undertake that you will not apply in your own name or cause to be applied, nor will you agree or allow any third party to apply, in any jurisdiction or in any manner, any trademark, domain name, wireless website, internet search term, trade name or service mark similar to any of our trademarks. If any of the above circumstances occurs, you shall transfer to us all relevant rights at your own expense. If any loss is caused to us due to your breach of this clause, you shall be solely responsible for such losses.

4. Confidentiality

(1) We will take confidentiality measures to protect your information from unauthorized access, use or disclosure. It is both our responsibility and your responsibility to maintain the security and normal use of the service. We will adopt appropriate security measures and technology to maintain the Software. You may be required to provide Cardinal Operations with confidential information in the form of MPS (“Data Files”) for the purpose of vulnerability repair and Error Correction, and agree to authorize Cardinal Operations to copy, download and perform the Data Files the foregoing information in its internal libraries solely for the purposes of: (a) performance testing of the Product; (b) determination of solutions and/or benchmark time for the Product; and (c) research, development and improvement of the Product. Cardinal Operations undertakes to keep such information confidential and permanently delete such information after use. Cardinal Operations may use the results and/or improvements generated from its internal use of such Data Files for the benefit of Cardinal Operations and its other customers. Such activities shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement.

(2) You understand and agree that, if any disclosure of information is caused by natural disaster and other force majeure, thefts, robbery, hacker attack, etc., instead of reasons attributable to us, we shall not assume legal liabilities therefor.

(3) We will not be subject to the confidentiality obligation in the following circumstances:

(a) any information you provide is made publicly available for reasons not attributable to us;

(b) required to be disclosed by laws and regulations, administrative and judicial authorities or other competent authorities;

(c) with your prior authorization;

(d) to detect, prevent or address fraud, security or technical issues;

(e) to implement relevant service agreements or these policies and to protect the public interests;

(f) to protect the personal and property safety or other legitimate interests of our customers, us, our affiliates, other users or employees and to use for other reasonable and necessary purposes.

VIII NO WARRANTY STATEMENT

1. Although the Software (including its upgraded versions) has been thoroughly tested by us, we do not warrant its full compatibility with all hardware, software and systems. If there is any incompatibility, you may inform us of the situation to obtain technical support. You may choose to cease using the Software if the problem cannot be solved.

2. We provide the Product to you on an “as is” and “as available” basis without making promises, guarantees or warranties of any kind. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable laws, we do not guarantee or warrant that our services will meet your requirements, nor do we guarantee the timeliness, security and accuracy of the Product. We shall not be liable for any loss or damage suffered by you as a result of your reliance on (in whole or in part) or use of our services, or your (or anyone else's) access to and/or use of information obtained through the Product.

3. We make no warranty of any kind, express or implied, with respect to any of the following matters:

(1) The services provided by the Software hereunder comply with the user's requirements;

(2) The services provided by the Software hereunder are not affected by force majeure, computer virus, hacker attack, system instability, user's location, shutdown by user, reasons attributable to telecommunication department and any other external or human factors such as network, technology and telecommunication lines;
